

Monday, May 5
08:00 onward	Registration
09:00-09:15	Welcome Note: Martina Schröck (Vice-Mayor of Graz) & Günter Getzinger (Managing Director of IAS-STs), Room 1
09:15-10:00	Keynote 1: The New Geography of Food (In-)Security: Exploring the Potential of Urban Innovations Roberta Sonnino (Cardiff University, Wales) Chair: Sandra Karner; Room 1
10:00-10:15 Coffee Break
	Room 1	Room A	Room B
10:15-12:00 Morning Sessions	SS5: Key Concepts of Agro-Food Studies (1) (Chairs: Petra C. Braun, Ernst Langthaler & Markus Schermer) -The Food Regime Concept: Strengths and Weaknesses, Ernst Langthaler -The embeddedness concept - mapping the ecological embeddedness of food supply chains, Marianne Penker -Co-Production Beyond Alternative Food Networks, Christof Lammer -Transition in food systems: the case of the Austrian dairy sector, Markus Schermer	SS7: The politics of ICTs (1) (Chair: Astrid Mager) -Inscriptions of Norms, Values and Hegemonies on Different Technological Levels, Johanna Seyfrin & Katarina L. Gidlund -Escape identification? Responsibilities, agencies and feminist opportunities within new developments of information and communication technologies, Waltraud Ernst -The politics of indigenous ICTs: internet infrastructures and services for First Nation communities in Northwestern Ontario, Canada, Phillip Budka -How concepts of ideology, hegemony and sociomateriality frame the micro-politics of ICT design, Doris Allhutter	CT: Life Sciences/Biotechnology (1) (Chair: Armin Spök) -Re-installing ethics into bio-objects. Cultural meanings and aporias of ethical stem cells, Lorenzo Beltrame -Life Sciences between Engineering und Unified Sciences – Questioning Social Embedding of Transdisciplinary Research, Michael Funk -Biotechnologies in reproductive medicine — Janus-faced challenge, Eva Šlesingerová -Tumordiagnosics: perspectives for genome research in clinical practice?, Michaela Mayrhofer & Bernhard Wieser -Vermicomposting – Waste Processing From Sewage Sludge to Greenhouses, Gyula Kasza & András Bálint et al.
12:00-13:30 Lunch Break
12:00-13:30 Poster Presentation during Lunch Break

Monday, May 5
13:30-15:00 Afternoon Sessions 1	Room 1	Room A	Room B
	SS5: Key Concepts of Agro-Food Studies (2) (Chairs: Petra C. Braun, Ernst Langthaler & Markus Schermer) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Between grounding and imagination: Towards a history of the concept of terroir, Rengenier C. Rittersma -Reluctant Pioneers: Environmental NGOs and Food Self-Provisioning in Post-socialist Czech Republic, Evelien de Hoop & Petr Jehlicka -Food Gardens in Uganda/Africa – a model for a sustainable local food system providing food and nutrition security and food sovereignty?, Petra Braun -Grassroots approaches to cope with global change on farm-scale – Insights from farmer’s experiments and innovations in Cuba, Friedrich Leitgeb, Susanne Kummer & Christian R. Vogl 	SS7: The politics of ICTs (2) (Chair: Doris Allhutter) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Fighting with Vidyo for common Goals! Virtue and vice of communication technologies in team-oriented knowledge production of high-energy physics, Anne Dippel -Screens that dis/connect: On the ambivalences of implementing intranet software, Katja Schönian -Translating Governmentality. An ANT-Informed Analysis of the Digitization of Governmental Information Flows, Annalisa Pelizza -Google media coverage in the context of EU data protection reform, Astrid Mager 	CT: Life Sciences/Biotechnology (2) (Chair: Bernhard Wieser) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Towards societal embedding of synthetic biology by organizing a fruitful science society dialogue, A.W. Betten -Agricultural Biotechnology Regulation: New issues and Challenges, Krishna Ravi Srinivas -Anticipatory Governance of Synthetic Biology: some Challenges for Slovenia as a Country with weak Stakeholder Networks, Franc Mali & Toni Pustovrh
15:00-15:30 Coffee Break
15:30-17:00 Afternoon Sessions 2	Room 1	Room A	Room B
	SS9: From STS to SSH: Translating STS concepts for the study of social sciences and humanities (SSH) (1) (Chairs: Matthias Duller & Rafael Schögler) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The Subject-Object-Relationship in the Social Sciences – The Epistemic Participation of the Analyzed, Werner Reichmann -Prospects for the science and technology studies concept ‘boundary-work’ in studies of social sciences and humanities, Pia Vuolanto -Wandering off the Beaten Path: An STS Study of Sociology, Emils Kilis 	SS8: Inside the Parliament (1) (Chairs: Endre Dányi, Stefan Laube & Thomas Scheffer) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The Labs of the Parliament: Making Use of Laboratory Studies for Investigating Political Work, Stefan Laube -Discovering Materiality in Political Issue-Formation, Jennifer Brichzin -On the trail of the Calculator Boys, Emil Urhammer -Inside a transnational Parliament in Action, Alejandro Esguerra 	SS2: Energy systems in transition – strategies of incumbent actors (1) (Chair: Gerhard Fuchs) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Large incumbent organizations engagement to field changing innovations, Eeva-Lotta Apajalahti & Armi Temmes -Grid operators under pressure. Coping strategies of incumbent energy companies, A. Maibaum, M. Kiehl & J. Weyer -German incumbents’ strategy of legitimating fossil power plants, Sandra Wassermann -The Leading German Energy Providers and the Transformation of the German Energy System, Gregor Kungl

Monday, May 5
	Room 1	Room A	Room B
17:15 – 18:45 Afternoon Sessions 3	SS9: From STS to SSH: Translating STS concepts for the study of social sciences and humanities (SSH) (2) (Matthias Duller & Rafael Schögler) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Horizons of Social Sciences and Humanities in European Research Funding – a story of multiple enactments, Katja Mayer -Europeanizing Social Science - The case of the European Social Survey, Kristoffer Kropp -Explanation of prejudice in contemporary Hungarian sociology. A case study, Judit Gárdos -The Actor-Network of Television Ratings, Matthias Wieser 	SS8: Inside the Parliament (2) (Chairs: Endre Dányi, Stefan Laube & Thomas Scheffer) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Technology, Law and Forms of Government at the National Assembly of Quebec: An Anthropologist's Perspective, Samuel Shapiro -Politics beyond words: The curious relationship of the Holy Crown of Hungary and the Hungarian Parliament, Endre Dányi -Final discussion, chaired by Thomas Scheffer 	SS2: Energy systems in transition – strategies of incumbent actors (2) (Chair: Gerhard Fuchs) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Involving Incumbent Actors in Local Strategies for Energy System Transformations. Examples from three Case Studies, Pia Laborgne -The place of risk in the visions of shale gas governance in Poland, Aleksandra Lis & Piotr Stankiewicz -Fracking in Austria - and beyond, Alexander Lang -Conflicts over the extension of the German electricity grid, Mario Neukirch
19:00-19:45	Keynote 2: Bodily agencies: Materialities, Technologies, and Meanings from a feminist STS perspective Sigrid Schmitz (University of Vienna, Austria) Chair: Birgit Hofstätter ; Room 1

Tuesday, May 6
09:00-9:45	Keynote 3: Strategic Public Procurement – Rationales and Realities Angelika Tisch & Steffen Wirth (IFZ/STS, Graz, Austria) Chair: Günter Getzinger; Room 1
09:45-10:00 Coffee Break
	Room 1	Room A	Room B
10:00-12:00 Morning Sessions	CT: Gendered careers and disciplinary cultures in science and technology (1) (Chairs: Susanne Kink, Jennfier Dahmen, Daniela Freitag) -How much Gender Equality Policies fits into the university? A case study at a German University, Susanne Achterberg & Jennifer Dahmen -Investigating gender-neutral and gender-sensitive academic recruiting strategies, Larissa Müller et al. -Entanglements of gender cultures and disciplinary cultures in physical sciences: Resonances and divergences, Erlemann Martina -Science and technology – Gender and institutions, Vikas Saharan -Gardeners, cooks, sailors and quantumists: how lines of research in chemistry careers at the National University of Colombia are generated, Diana Farías , Claudia Rubiano & Alexandro Escudero -Contrastive Perspective on Gendered Academic Cultures in the Natural Sciences, Kink Susanne	SS4: Foodscapes Beyond the Alternative/Conventional Food Networks Binary (Chairs: Ulrich Ermann, Annalisa Colombino, Renate Renner) -The Social Life of Wheat, Samantha Foster -From conventional to developmental food networks, and back again? Fragile articulations of global fresh produce chains in Northern Tanzania, Johanna Herrigel -Convention and alterity in terroir: a regional perspective, Rory Hill -Beyond the Visible: A Phenomenology of Food Pornography, Fransisca Tan -Food Boxes - a sustainable means of responding to local food demands and for nutritional needs locally?, Eifiona Thomas Lane, Sian Pierce & Dave Beck -Meal Cultures: cooking and the kitchen as missing links, Parto Teherani-Krönner	SS1: Social justice and Diversity (1) (Chairs: Thomas Berger & Birgit Hofstätter) -Materiality and the Governing of Neighbourhoods: commercial areas, communities and sustainability, Yvonne Rydin -Socio-technological job search and recruitment in a segregated labour market: Inclusion, exclusion and opportunities, Andreas Schadauer & Benedikt Springer -Human Rights for All in the Globalization Project @ New Media Spaces? Interfacing Social Justice and Larger Freedom in the Information Age, On-Kwok Lai -Locating disease and inequity: Vaccines, cancer and politics of prevention in Colombia, Oscar J. M. Castañeda - Systematic inequalities in medically assisted reproduction in Hungary – the patients’ perspective, Zsófia Bauer
12:00-14:00 Lunch Break, hosted by the Mayor of Graz, Mag. Siegfried Nagl

Tuesday, May 6
	Room 1	Room A	Room B
14:00-15:30 Afternoon Sessions 1	SS6: Bodies – Technologies – Gender (Chair: Lisa Scheer) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Technological transformation, gender and labouring bodies: Exploring socio-technical interactions in System of Rice Intensification (SRI) taking cases from Odisha, India, Sabarmatee -Bodies in Time: assisted reproduction and the attempt at a timely analysis, Lisa Lehner -Online harassment and online solidarity – a technofeminist perspective, Anita Thaler -Video remix and political participation: A concept for critical media education, Birgit Hofstätter 	CT: Towards Low-Carbon Energy Systems (1) (Chair: Daniel Barben) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Thinking, Planning and Making Futures: Towards a Better Understanding of Energy Scenarios in Interdisciplinary Research Settings, Bärbel Keysselit -Barriers, Success Factors and Policy Measures for the Decarbonisation of Neighbourhoods across Europe, Markus Winkelmann, Andrea Immendorfer & Volker Stelzer -The transition to distributed electricity generation: An agent-based model of interdependent household investment decisions, Roman Seidl et al. -Responsibility and Governance of Climate Engineering, Nils Matzner 	SS1: Social justice and Diversity (2) (Chairs: Thomas Berger & Birgit Hofstätter) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -How is energy implicated in a minimally decent life? Socio-technical change and social justice, Neil Simcock, Rosie Day & Gordon Walker -Rural health electrification –organizational and socio economic implementation supported by recurring monitoring, Tania Berger -Policy instruments to combat energy poverty: Accuracy of governmental regulations and acceptance by affected households, Christoph Manuel Steiner & Sebastian Seebauer -Reduction of Energy Poverty by Building Renovation under Tennants’ Participation (RedEn!), Andrea Höttl et al. -Energy poverty as a socio-technological configuration, Thomas Berger
15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

Tuesday, May 6
	Room 1	Room A	Room B
16:00-17:45 Afternoon Sessions 2	SS3: Energy Consumption in Organizational Settings (Chairs: Magdalena Wicher & Wibke Tritthart) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -A model describing user satisfaction in green office buildings, Magdalena Wicher -Knowledge transfer in design and energy operation of building projects. Achieving sociotechnical transitions towards Zero Emission Buildings through learning, Helen Gansmo & Thomas Berker -Employees' energy cooperatives: hybrid organizational structures for greening companies from within, Judith Rognli -Beyond switching-off the lights: A conceptual model for explaining employees' green extra-role behaviors in companies, Anja Gräf -Using agent-based modelling for indoor thermal comfort assessment, Wibke Tritthart 	CT: Towards Low-Carbon Energy Systems (2) (Chair: Jürgen Suschek-Berger) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The Transferability of Sustainable Design Concepts, the Case of Masdar, Ahlam Ammar Sharif -Günter Getzinger 	CT: Sustainable Food Systems (Chair: Sandra Karner) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The hare & the tortoise: Who will prevail? Knowledge, power & rationality in the contested transition to sustainable food cultivation & consumption, Elisabeth Bongert & Stephen Albrecht -Organic transition in the Danish jail system, Mette Weinreich Hansen & Niels Heine Kristensen -Between 'urban gardening' and villages. Warsaw suburb gardens, Katarzyna Ewa Król -Ethical Consumption as a Reflexive Project: Negotiation of Consumer Identities through Ethical Labelling, Yana Manyukhina -Coffee, Certification Schemes and the reshaping of Sustainability, Derly Sánchez Vargas -Democratising the Governance of Food Systems, Sandra Karner
18:00-18:45	Keynote 4: Rethinking energy efficiency in the built environment as dynamic relation between moving targets Thomas Berker (NTNU Trondheim, Norway) Chair: Magdalena Wicher; Room 1
18:45-19:00	Closing Remarks: Günter Getzinger (Managing Director of the IAS-STs; Room 1)
19:15 (back in Graz at midnight)	Departure to social event. Bustrip to a traditional Styrian tavern; Reception by the Governor of Styria, Mag. Franz Voves		